The Clovis for U.S. Senate campaign has released its Third Quarter fundraising numbers, ahead of next Tuesday's filing deadline that's required by the Federal Election Commission.

A statement from Michael Biundo of the Clovis Campaign says Sam has raised $75,000 in donations during the third quarter of this cycle, with cash on hand exceeding $35,000.

Biundo says there will be no PAC money in this filing and the overwhelming majority of Sam's support came from hard working lowans.
