

JANKLOW'S FUNERAL SERVICES SET

Written by Woody Gottburg
Thursday, January 12 2012 15:45

Former South Dakota Governor Bill Janklow's body will lie in state at the Capitol Rotunda in Pierre on Tuesday before being transferred to Sioux Falls for a funeral service on Wednesday.

Janklow, who served four terms leading the state died of brain cancer Thursday at the age of 72.

Janklow was elected to the U.S. House in 2002, but resigned as South Dakota's Congressman after causing a fatal traffic accident in 2003.

His body will lie in state at the Capitol Rotunda in Pierre from 7 a.m. to 12 p.m. Tuesday with a prayer service at 12:30 p.m.

Janklow's son Russ says his father's funeral will be Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. at Our Savior's Lutheran Church in Sioux Falls.